ITT Appoints Blaine Browers as Chief Financial Officer

STAMFORD, Conn., Nov. 17, 2026 — ITT Inc. (NYSE: ITT), a leading manufacturer of highly engineered critical components and customized technology solutions, today announced the appointment of Blaine Browers as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, effective January 1, 2027. Browers will report to Chief Executive Officer and President Luca Savi. He succeeds Interim CFO Michael Savinelli who will continue as Vice President, Finance, Chief Tax Officer, Treasurer and Assistant Secretary.

Browers is a seasoned executive with more than two decades of experience leading financial organizations within global industrial businesses. He has a strong track record of improving profitability and strengthening balance sheets, executing and integrating acquisitions, and building high-performing finance teams.

“Blaine is a proven leader whose industrial experience, operational mindset and results-oriented approach will help all of us to continue driving performance and to take ITT to the next level,” said Luca Savi, Chief Executive Officer and President. “His experience allocating capital, expanding margins and executing acquisitions will make him an important partner to our businesses and to the leadership team as we pursue profitable above market growth and compound long-term shareholder value with M&A. I am very happy to welcome Blaine to the team and remain thankful to Michael for his leadership and contributions during his interim service.”

Browers joins ITT from Cadre Holdings Inc., a publicly traded global manufacturer of safety and mission-critical products, where he has served as CFO since 2018. At Cadre, he led Finance, Accounting, Tax, Treasury and Information Technology. During his tenure, Cadre improved profitability, drove operational improvements and executed strategic M&A. He also led the finance organization through Cadre’s initial public offering in 2021.

“I am honored to join ITT and excited to partner with Luca, the board and the talented ITT team,” said Browers. “ITT has built a strong portfolio of businesses, a performance-driven culture and a compelling strategy for profitable growth. I look forward to supporting disciplined execution, strengthening financial and operational performance and helping advance ITT's strategic priorities and long-term value creation."

Before joining Cadre, Browers held finance and information technology leadership roles at IDEX Corp. from 2010 to 2018, most recently as group vice president of finance and IT for its Fire and Safety business. Earlier in his career, he held finance roles of increasing responsibility at General Electric. Browers holds a Bachelor's degree in Finance from the University of South Florida and a Master's degree in Business Administration from Washington University in St. Louis.
