POWER OF ATTORNEY

CAUTION TO THE PRINCIPAL:

Your Power of Attorney is an important document. As the "principal," you give the person whom you choose (your "agent") authority to spend your money and sell or dispose of your property during your lifetime without telling you. You do not lose your authority to act even though you have given your agent similar authority.

When your agent exercises this authority, he or she must act according to any instructions you have provided or, where there are no specific instructions, in your best interest. "Important Information for the Agent" at the end of this document describes your agent's responsibilities.

Your agent can act on your behalf only after signing the Power of Attorney before a notary public. You can request information from your agent at any time. If you are revoking a prior Power of Attorney by executing this Power of Attorney, you should provide written notice of the revocation to your prior agent(s) and to the financial institutions where your accounts are located. You can revoke or terminate your Power of Attorney at any time for any reason as long as you are of sound mind. If you are no longer of sound mind, a court can remove an agent for acting improperly.

Your agent cannot make health care decisions for you. You may execute a "Health Care Proxy" to do this.

The law governing Powers of Attorney is contained in the New York General Obligations Law, Article 5, Title 15. This law is available at a law library, or online through the New York State Senate or Assembly websites, www.senate.state.ny.us or www.assembly.state.ny.us.

If there is anything about this document that you do not understand, you should ask a lawyer of your own choosing to explain it to you.

I, Frank R. Jimenez, residing at Stamford, CT, hereby appoint, Burt M. Fealing, residing in White Plains, NY and Kathleen S. Stolar residing in White Plains, NY, or either of them, as my agent for the purposes of preparing, executing and filing on my behalf (i) any report or statement of beneficial ownership or changes in beneficial ownership of securities of ITT Corporation, an Indiana corporation (the "Company"), that the undersigned (in his or her individual capacity or in any other capacity) may be required to file pursuant to Section 16(a) of the 34 Act, including any report or statement on Form 3, Form 4 or Form 5, or any amendment thereto, (ii) any report or notice required under Rule 144 of the 33 Act, including Form 144, or any amendment thereto, and (iii) any and all other documents or instruments that may be necessary or desirable in connection with or in furtherance of any of the foregoing, for as long as I am a director or officer of ITT Corporation unless this Power of Attorney is earlier terminated pursuant to the provisions hereof.

This POWER OF ATTORNEY shall not be affected by my subsequent incapacity. This POWER OF ATTORNEY DOES NOT REVOKE any prior Powers of Attorney executed by me.

TERMINATION:

This Power of Attorney may be revoked by me at any time and will be terminated by my death or other event described in section 5-1511 of the General Obligations Law. (Section 5-1511 of the General Obligations Law describes the manner in which you may revoke your Power of Attorney, and the events which terminate the Power of Attorney.)
